

PRESS RELEASE
Paris, 19 February 2019

The 10th Paris Games Week: Join us at Porte de Versailles from October 30 to November 3 to celebrate gaming

As the flagship event of the French video game industry since its beginning in 2010, Paris Games Week has become the must-see event for all fans, players and communities over the last 10 years. Organized by the Syndicat des Éditeurs de Logiciels de Loisirs (SELL) and Comexposium, PGW showcases the wealth and diversity of products offered by the video game industry each year.

The 10th edition of the show for the 10th art

The mirror for a digital pursuit that has become a social phenomenon, Paris Games Week has grown steadily to reflect the diversity of video games themselves. Whether as a hobby, a passion or a profession, video games have become popular in just a few years and are reaching out to an ever-growing audience around the world. A multitude of uses that makes Paris Games Week the showcase for all video gamers and a sector that is committed to more inclusive video gaming. Communities, families, publishers, developers, schools, accessory manufacturers, associations, cosplayers, athletes: the entire panorama of video gaming will be celebrated at the tenth edition of Paris Games Week.

PGW will once again take over 80,000m<sup>2</sup> in halls 1, 2.2 and 3 of the Paris Porte de Versailles Exhibition Centre.

About PGW – Paris Games Week – www.parisgamesweek.com:

Paris Games Week is the French video games trade fair for the general public organised by SELL (Union of Video Game Publishers). One of the top 5 French trade fairs, this annual event was visited by 316,000* people in 2018 and has become a showcase for the video game industry. The 10th edition, running from 30th of October to the 3rd of November 2019 at the Porte de Versailles exhibition centre in Paris, will cover over 80,000 square metres and will be held in halls 1, 2.2 and 3. Open from 8.30am to 6.30pm (closing at 6pm on Sunday the 3rd of November), gamers and their families will be able to discover all the new products for the Christmas season, the new trends and what the future holds for video gaming. An event for the whole family, organised during the October school holidays, this year Paris Games Week is once again hosting a vast area for Paris Games Week Junior, for 3-12 year-olds.

**Different combined daily flows: paying visitors and guests, exhibitors, organisation and security teams, media, professionals, premier and night event attendees.*
